

I find it abhorrant that Sinclair will be allowed, under FCC rules to air such an obviously politically biased piece on Presidential candidate John Kerry. This will be aired at too late a date for a reasoned rebuttal and allows no test for the veracity of the content. If there be laws regulating truth in advertising, are there no laws regarding truth in politics? Shame on those involved in allowing such a degradation of our political jewel, the wellspring of all that we should stand for.....the truth>
